Therefore, defense counsel and the Government shall restrict access to the Discovery, and shall only disclose the Discovery to their client, office staff, investigators, independent paralegals, necessary third-party vendors, consultants, and/or anticipated fact or expert witnesses to the extent that defense counsel believes is necessary to assist in the

1 defense of their client in this matter or that the Government believes is necessary in the 2 investigation and prosecution of this matter.

3 5. Third parties contracted by the United States or defense counsel to provide 4 expert analysis or testimony may possess and inspect the Discovery, but only as necessary

13 or the defendant, without prior approval from this Court.

14 7. To the extent that defense counsel makes any portion of the Discovery available
15 in paper format to anyone, including his client, outside of counsel's office, defense counsel 16 shall ensure that any and all sensitive and confidential information is redacted or removed.

17 8. All counsel of record in this matter, including counsel for the United States, 18 shall ensure that any party, including the Defendant, that obtains access to the Discovery is 19 provided a copy of this Order. No other party that obtains access to or possession of the 20 Discovery shall retain such access or possession unless authorized by this Order, nor 21 further disseminate the Discovery except as authorized by this Order. Any other party that
